Compiled by Michael R. Ebert

JOHN P. CHRISTOPHER

Law partner

John P. Christopher of Glen Head has been named a fellow of the New York Bar Foundation based on his “outstanding achievement and dedication to the legal profession,” the organization said. Christopher is a partner at Uniondale-based law firm Sahn Ward Coschignano PLLC, where he concentrates on zoning and land use, real estate transactions and leasing, landlord-tenant disputes and municipal law. He is chairman-elect of the State Bar Association’s Young Lawyers Section, one of the founders of the Young Lawyers Sections’ Friends of the Foundation, and serves as a section delegate to the association’s house of delegates and liaison to the association’s Real Property Law Section.

ALAN B. HODISH

Attorney

Alan B. Hodish of East Meadow has received an Award of Special Recognition from the East Meadow School District’s Board of Education in recognition of “his many years of child advocacy and exceptionally dedicated service to the children of East Meadow,” the board said. Hodish is an attorney and sole practitioner at the Law Office of Alan B. Hodish LLC in Garden City. He is founder of the Nassau County Bar Association’s Mentor Program, which has provided mentors in the form of judges and lawyers for at-risk students at the district’s Woodland and WT. Clarke middle schools. He also chairs a mock interview program for East Meadow high schoolers through the East Meadow Chamber of Commerce.

BONITA LONDON

Professor

Bonita London of East Northport has received the 2017 Public Service Award from the Suffolk County Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Commission in recognition of her “demonstrated record of dedication to civil rights,” the organization said. London is a professor of psychology in the Stony Brook University College of Arts and Sciences and is a faculty adviser for the undergraduate Psychology Student Alliance, an organization that promotes underrepresented student engagement in the field of psychology at Stony Brook.

STEVE COSTELLO

Coach

Steve Costello of Levittown has been named Region 1 Coach of the Year, as well as New York State Coach of the Year by the National Federation of High School Coaches. Costello is varsity baseball coach at MacArthur High School in the Levittown Public Schools, with his teams garnering 468 wins and 112 losses during his 30-year coaching career. His teams also have acquired 20 league championships, three Nassau County championships, two Long Island championships and one New York State championship.
